About Us

KNAM Foods is a leading processor and exporter of premium Basmati rice, based in Ladwa, Kurukshetra - "Haryana", India. Our state-of-the-art milling facility has a processing capacity of over 400 metric tons per day. We source directly from proprietary paddy fields and maintain the highest standards through rigorous quality checks—ensuring that only the finest grains reach our customers around the world.

Pesticide Free Rice

EU and US compliant KNAM's pesticide-free rice is the superlative choice for health-conscious end- customers. This variety is grown without any chemicals and under sustainable farming practices that not only promote better health but also support the well-being of Mother Nature. Like all our varieties, KNAM's pesticide-free rice retains its natural nutrients and flavor, ensuring a wholesome and delicious meal every time.
